A note from our Clergy

What would it feel like to be in a daily state of teshuvah (repenting)? Pretty overwhelming! You might think our tradition is asking as much in this selection from Talmud Shabbat 153a:

תָּנַן הֵתָם, רַבִּי אֱלִיעֶזֶר אוֹמֵר: שׁוֹב יוֹם אֶחָד לִפְנֵי מִיתָתְךָ. שְׂאֵלֹ
תִּלְמִידָיו אֵת רַבִּי אֱלִיעֶזֶר: וְכִי אָדָם יוֹדֵעַ אֵיזָהוּ יוֹם יָמוּת? אָמַר
לָהֶן: וְכָל שָׁפָן, יָשׁוּב הַיּוֹם, שְׂמָא יָמוּת לְמַחֵר, וְנִמְצָא כָּל יָמִיו
בְּתַשׁוּבָה

"We learned in a mishna that Rabbi Eliezer says: Repent one day before your death. Rabbi Eliezer's students asked him: But does a person know the day on which he will die? He said to them: All the more so this is a good piece of advice, and one should repent today lest he die tomorrow; and by following this advice one will spend his entire life in a state of repentance..."

For the three of us, the pandemic has brought new meaning to this text. Reading it, we ask this year: How do we structure our daily spiritual lives so the hard/heart work of Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur feels connected, integrated, and vibrant? We know so much is "up in the air" moving through each day and each week from Zoom to in-person reentry. We feel the fragility of life and death during a pandemic. But if we've learned anything in the last two years, cultivating a daily practice of learning, prayer, and engaging in acts of hesed has helped us remain One Adath.

We could not have sustained those pillars without the steadfast devotion of service leaders and phone callers, board members and staff, contributors of dollars and hours to discreet concerns and more visible needs. Repentance in the text above could be replaced with the word "connect" or "learn" or "grow." Our Adath community thrives each and every day so that we have a connected, integrated, and vibrant community as we approach these High Holy Days and the uncertainty of the world.

Wishing you and your loved ones good health, peace, and intention each and every day,

Harold J. Kravitz

From the
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

“The Annual Recognition of Community” supports the reality that you belong not just to a synagogue, but to a sacred community that celebrates your joys, supports you in difficult times as these and is always here for you whenever you feel the need to be in community.

When you read all the names in this book, please try to feel the heartfelt connection of all the people listed who have given time and resources to our community with a whole and loving heart.

May you have a healthy and sweet 2022,
Miranda Weisbuch

Throughout the past year, we have been innovative in dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic. We have brought you creative shabbat and holiday services, daily minyan, programs and life-cycle events in unique fashions that none of us would have previously imagined. Through these difficult times, Adath volunteers have spent thousands of hours providing our community with Acts of Kindness, education, inclusion, worship, leadership, gifts of tzedakah and more. As you read through this booklet, its easy to understand why Adath is such a special community. We are One Adath, a vibrant, spiritual and caring community that we all can be very proud of.

As we move into 2022, best wishes for a happy and healthy year,
Ed Zeman

The Shem Tov Award was established in 1959 to honor a congregant who had voluntarily provided extraordinary service to the Adath Jeshurun Congregation. Each year, the past Award recipients of this honor select a recipient for the current year's Shem Tov Award. In some years, no award was given.

Scott Gordon was awarded the 2021 Shem Tov Award for his long and varied service to Adath. He joined in 1985 when he became Youth Director for three years. He was recognized for his interest and ability in computers and he has worked in Information Technology since that time. Most recently, during the pandemic, he has used these skills to help those who need assistance to log in to Zoom or maneuver the Adath website. Of this work, Scott says: "I love helping people." He has made more phone calls for the L'Chaim campaign than anyone else. Scott joined the Board of Trustees in 1990 and he has served additional terms. Recently, he has been on the Executive Committee and served as Secretary. He is a member of the Chevra Kavod Hamet and is the co-Chair of the Adath's Israel Committee.

In Recognition of Directed Giving

Your gift to the Annual L'Chaim Campaign provides essential funding to every part of Adath. It is the single most important gift you can make to lift up our Adath community. Directed gifts go even further to strengthen the work of Adath that is most important to you.

L'Chaim, our Annual Giving Campaign supports many projects, services, offerings, and initiatives, including:

Quality educational programming for all ages

B'nai Mitzvah students preparation

Gan Shelanu Preschool, where children develop a strong Jewish identity

Spiritual leaders that make our lives more meaningful

Above and beyond your participation in L'Chaim, donating to a specific area of our Adath community can be a meaningful and rewarding gift. Thank you to everyone who supported our community this past year with your directed gifts.

At Minyan we gather in prayer and begin or end the day with tradition and devotion, enveloped in community. As some of us face the challenges of life or a loved one's passing, morning prayers provide comfort and give us strength. Weekday minyan at 7:20 am and 5:45 pm.

From Generation to Generation

What a year!

The Adatah Jeshurun Congregation's preschool, Gan Shelanu, offers the synagogue's youngest congregants their first sweet taste of Jewish education. The Gan's comprehensive curriculum opens opportunities for students in a wide range of areas so they will achieve cognitive, social, emotional and physical development milestones that will provide a strong foundation for their further education. There is no "typical" year at the Gan, and that was certainly true this year! Pandemic!

Over the summer, Gan staff worked diligently to prepare reopening procedures. All decisions were made in the interest of the safety, health and well-being of the Gan's students, their families and the preschool staff. The new safety guidelines and protocols were followed scrupulously and families partnered with the preschool by adhering to the protocols and maintaining open and honest communication. With high hopes and large doses of optimism, the school year began as scheduled in September. Class sizes were limited ensuring a great deal of individualization; staff and (most) students wore masks; handwashing intensified; temperatures were taken every morning; sanitizing play and educational equipment increased; classes did not "mix"; children were dropped off and picked up at the door; the synagogue's spine became a race track; the Social Hall was earmarked as a giant building site; and more. Big screen TVs were installed in all classrooms. "Zoom", a term formerly used at the Gan by kids playing with cars and trucks, took on a whole new meaning. Birthday celebrations, Gan Shabbat with Hazzan Joanna, storytime with Rabbi Weininger, Cosmic Kids Yoga, and other programs were broadcast to the different classes. And, somewhat surprisingly, the school year ran incredibly smoothly! In this new COVID conscientious environment, the students thrived and parents were happy knowing their children were in a safe, loving, learning-enriched program!

The kids "traveled" to Israel for Yom Haatzmaut—being socially distanced on the El Al flight. Students explored a special unit on "germs" (very apropos). The Pacer Puppets presented a "live" show on zoom and the kids "attended" a special program presented by the Minnesota Orchestra. Gan graduation was held outside with caps and gowns and special individual graduation cakes. Friendships continued to be nurtured.

The 2020-2021 school year promises to be one that teachers, parents and students will not soon forget!

The Gan continues to be extremely fortunate to have dedicated teachers as well as parents, grandparents, special friends and former Gan families who care so deeply about the school.

Gan Shelanu Preschool Director (now retired)

Adath's Caring Community: Yad Sima Tova

A helping hand; heartfelt support; a kind, meaningful gesture. Adath's Caring Community: Yad Sima Tova helps meet the health and healing needs of our congregation. Yad Sima Tova is named in memory of Susan Himmelman Shapiro, z"l, after her Hebrew name. We would be happy to welcome new volunteers!

Please contact Co-Chairs Diane Arenson, (dfarenson@gmail.com) or Tema Rosenbaum (rosenbaum204@comcast.net).

Due to the closure of our building and the pandemic, some of our activities were suspended.

Women of Adath celebrated 102 years of connection and service to the congregation this year. Despite the inability to meet in person, and through the generosity of our congregational members, we contributed to Torah Fund which supports our seminaries. In addition, we established a fund at the Adath Foundation for USY and indicated our GAN fund at the Foundation would be used for scholarships.

This year, 2021, we anticipate holding events that meet the interests of the Adath Jeshurun congregants. In addition, we look forward to collaborating with constituent groups. We welcome your ideas and suggestions as it is through this process we are able to grow stronger together.

Adath Jeshurun Foundation

We've been through a difficult time. During the past 18 months we have welcomed new lives into our community, supported those who were suffering or ill, and said farewell to friends and family. And through it all the Adath has been there for you.

Thanks to the foresight and wisdom of past generations of our members the Foundation has been able to provide the Adath Jeshurun Congregation with the means to not only survive but adapt and thrive. Our community has changed in ways, large and small, which are known and yet to be known. In this new reality we resume building the future of our community.

This is your moment to ensure we pass on the Jewish legacy entrusted to us by past generations of the Adath to the Adath of the future. From one generation to the next we pass on our Jewish values and deep love of Israel. We remember and celebrate our roots and rich history while building on them to remain relevant today and tomorrow and meet the new and evolving needs of our community.

The Adath Foundation is our promise of a Jewish future. Your lifetime or planned gift ensures the Adath Jeshurun Congregation will be able to provide for the present and meet the needs of the future. It is your opportunity to define your legacy and a vote of confidence in the Adath that is and the Adath that will be. Honor our past and secure our future with your gift.

To discuss your legacy contact a member of the clergy, Joe Rubenstein, President of the Foundation, or Miranda Weisbuch, the Executive Director of the Adath.

PERMANENT ENDOWMENT FUNDS: OUR PROMISE FOR A JEWISH FUTURE.
